The University of Dublin

Founded in 1592 by the Royal Charter of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth I, Trinity College Dublin, the University of Dublin is the oldest university in Ireland and one of the oldest in Europe. Centuries of learning and discovery echo with every footstep across the cobblestoned pathways of Trinity's historic campus.

All revenue from sales goes directly to supporting Trinity's academic mission, research work of global consequence and the ongoing preservation of the Library Collections.

THE LONG ROOM

THE LIBRARY OF TRINITY COLLEGE DUBLIN

The magnificent 18th century Long Room of the Library of Trinity College Dublin, frequently described as 'the most beautiful room in Ireland', opened in 1732 and was expanded in 1860. At nearly 65 metres in length, this working library is filled with over 200,000 beautifully bound volumes in striking, dark oak bookcases, representing over four centuries of learning and scholarship.

This collection has been Inspired by the Long Room, the Library of Trinity College Dublin.
